

Community Service Leader Manual

ADULT CODE OF CONDUCT

TO PROVIDE THE BEST EXPERIENCE,
ALL TRIP PARTICIPANTS AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

- I will show respect to trip participants from all churches. I will act as a positive role model.
- I will not act or behave in a way that creates significant distractions or disruptions to other participants or staff.
- I will follow all the trip rules that youth are expected to follow (listed in the Youth Code of Conduct).
- Regarding safety, I will be alert to any potential safety risks and take action to prevent injury to other participants or myself.
- I know trip attendance means living in a very close Christian community for a week. All adults are expected to respectfully correct the inappropriate actions of any participant, even if he or she is not part of my group.
- I will support the trip staff by encouraging my group's youth and adults to follow the Code of Conduct, schedules, and trip processes.
- In order to build relationships with my group, my crew, and others at the mission trip, I will not text message or use my cell phone, iPod, MP3 player, etc. on worksites or during worship programs. I may use my cell phone to call the trip office or respond to an emergency.
- I will show respect to all other youth and their adult leaders. I will not ridicule or humiliate youth. And I will be an encourager of youth, particularly in my crew during the trip week.
- I understand the trip is an adventure in which we occupy a local school, or similar facility, and may sleep on floors. Some services may be limited or nonexistent, such as non-emergency telephones, hot water, or secure places to hold valuables. I will not bring valuables that cannot be stored in my vehicle.
- I will model respect for others and avoid inappropriate relationships. I will direct my time and attention to all, rather than selected, youth and adults with whom I serve, work, and associate.

Your signature on the "Camp Participation and Release Agreement" sheet accompanying your Camper Information materials verifies that you have read, understood, and agreed to this Code of Conduct.
